What is WorldSkills?

The WorldSkills Competition is hosted in a different country every two years and it comes to London in October 2011.

Young people from across the globe will compete to become the best of the best in their chosen skill. WorldSkills London 2011 is more than just a competition – it's a chance to inspire and spark the ambitions of young people, opening their minds to the possibilities their futures hold.

Who will visit?

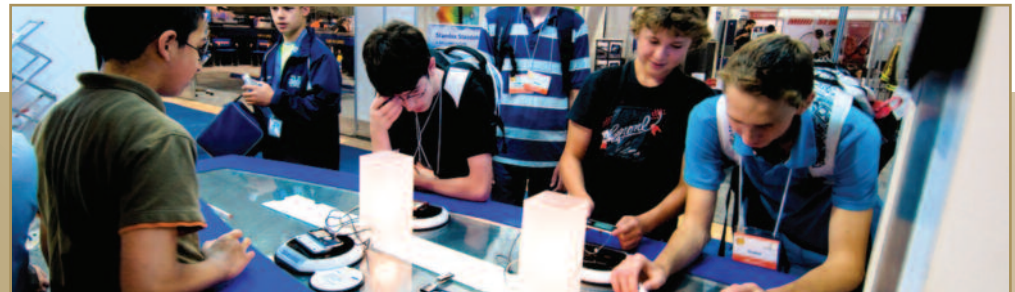

- Educational organisations including schools, colleges and universities
- Education professionals including teachers, trainers and lecturers
- Parents and carers
- Individuals seeking help and advice on education and employment
- Employers
- Community groups including youth clubs, Scouts and Guides

Why should I get involved?

Your students will be amazed by the young people from across the world; be able to Have a Go at a wide range of skills and learn first-hand about future career and job opportunities through impartial information and advice services. Entry to the event is complimentary and it is especially beneficial for schools, colleges, universities, community and careers organisations.

Why is it unique?

- 150,000 visitors
- 1,000 competitors
- 45 skill areas
- Over 50 countries
- An accredited, innovative Education Experience with new teaching resources for you to use
- An interactive exhibition, providing impartial Information, Advice and Guidance
- A seminar and conference series featuring topical subjects and debates
- Showcases to celebrate UK and international talent
- Have a Go activities
- Volunteering programme

What educational benefits does WorldSkills London 2011 offer?

A visit to WorldSkills London 2011 will ensure you and your students have access to complete and up-to-date careers information and enhance the work you are currently undertaking in the classroom/curriculum.

It will help careers professionals deliver advice to their students as part of essential Information, Advice and Guidance.

It will introduce students to skills, trades and professions they may never have considered and will help them put together evidence as part of their course/qualifications or act as a work related learning activity.

Ignite your students' passion to consider taking part in competitions and inspire them to be the best of the best in their chosen future career.

By taking part in the Education Experience you can benefit from free learning resources written and delivered by WorldSkills London 2011 for schools and colleges. The resources will be delivered through established partners and are available from worldskillslondon2011.com/education

How do I book to attend?

Group bookings

Register a group (six or more people) to attend at worldskillslondon2011.com/visit (click on registration for groups).

For educational institutes, we recommend you bring students in the following groups:

- Year groups 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13
- Year groups 4, 5 and 6 have the chance to visit during the exclusive Junior WorldSkills London 2011 session only on the morning of Wednesday 5 October

We suggest you bring complete year groups or classes of students for a four-hour visit to allow sufficient time at the event and ensure your students do not miss out on anything.

Individual visitors

You can register to attend at worldskillslondon2011.com/visit (click on registrations for individuals). You can also book for up to four of your friends, family or colleagues.
